Subject: "National Reform Party Steering Committee" request for an FEC advisory opinion
(file: AOR 1996-47)

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am a member of the Reform Party of South Carolina. I am not and never have been an officer in the Reform Party. I'm just an average member, someone who cares about her country and therefore about the Reform Party.

I am vehemently opposed to the "National Reform Party Steering Committee" clique. Nothing that I have read or heard by them or about them recommends them to me. This self-appointed committee is a small clique that is attempting to quietly seize control of this newborn party against the will of the majority. I implore you to block their attempt.

The Reform Party of South Carolina (like most Reform Party state organizations) has not authorized, approved, or encouraged this committee's actions or even its existence. In fact, at the Reform Party of South Carolina's state convention, a vote was held about whether to participate in the so-called "Reform Party National Caucus" (from which sprang the "National Reform Party Steering Committee"). We deliberately chose not to approve, encourage, or participate in the Reform Party National Caucus' actions. This was not a vote made by a select few in secret. This was a vote made by every member of the Reform Party of South Carolina who attended the state convention...including me.

Sincerely,

Linda A. Moore
